Singer / Songwriter / Fiddler Stephanie Bettman and Multi-Instrumentalist Luke Halpin will appear in concert at _____ on _____

Stephanie Bettman has been described as a triple threat. An accomplished writer, her songs are infused with wit and wisdom. As a vocalist, she has drawn comparisons to such legendary singers as Emmylou Harris, Joan Baez and Alison Krauss. Meanwhile, her fiddling, which combines elements of bluegrass and jazz, is filled with influences from such masters as Stephane Grappelli, Byron Berline and Johnny Gimble.

Luke Halpin is a renowned multi-instrumentalist who draws inspiration from the likes of Sam Bush, Mark O'Connor and Tony Rice. A dynamic vocalist himself, Halpin has worked the stages with the likes of Merle Haggard, Lone Star and The Steve Miller Band.

As a duo they have created a fully acoustic, delightfully eclectic sound that is far greater than the sum of it's parts. Together they weave a spell that takes the listener from up-tempo, down home fiddlin', to soulful sorrowful ballads, to super hooky folk/pop with hooks and lyrics that will stick with you long after the concert is over.

Touring together since 2008, the duo has been recognized in various Regional and National competitions, including Grand Prize Winners in the So Cal Live Acoustic Music Competition and Winners in the Topanga Banjo / Fiddle Contest, as well as being named in Music Connection's Top 25 New Music Critiques. Bettman's debut CD along with the duo's current CD have received national and international radio play, as well as critical acclaim.
